

1.6. PROCEDURE FOR THE ENTRY TEST

To pass the competitive selection, applicants submit two packages of documents: the first package forms the personal file of the applicant and contains the documents specified in the Rules for admission to RUDN University for applicants for higher education programs - postgraduate programs in 2022 (hereinafter referred to as the Rules). The second package is the portfolio itself.

Enrollment examination for the postgraduate educational program "Theoretical and Historical legal science" is carried out in the form of a portfolio assessment, in accordance with the procedure approved by the order of the Rector of RUDN University.

To conduct an enrollment examination, an examination committee is organized by order of the University.

To test the knowledge, experience and motivation of the applicant, the structure of the enrollment examination specified in this Program.

All elements of the enrollment examination, fully or partially presented by the applicant, together form his portfolio.

If the applicant has one document that can be evaluated by several portfolio items, the examination committee has the right to evaluate it by one or more portfolio items at its discretion.

The documents included in the portfolio are submitted in English. Identity documents, as well as education documents obtained in a foreign state, must be accompanied by a translation into Russian, certified by a notary.

Each portfolio is checked by at least two members of the examination committee. Points are given for each portfolio item and then summed up.

All decisions of the examination committee based on the results of the enrollment examination are taken by a simple majority of votes of the members of the committee. In case of equality of votes "for" and "against", the chairman of the examination committee is given the right to make a final decision.

If on the border of the admission control figures (places provided with budget funding) there are persons who scored the same number of points based on the results of enrollment examinations, then an additional ranking is carried out based on the results of an additional interview of the examination committee with such persons.

The announcement of the results of the enrollment examination takes place in accordance with the schedule for the announcement of the results of enrollment examinations for postgraduate educational programs.

Providing the process of assessing the enrollment examination with the necessary resources is carried out in accordance with the RUDN Charter.
