In the field of foreign and Russian languages:

The admission procedure involves checking the level of the English and Russian languages proficiency as a working languages pair for translation.

The applicants who speak other (s) foreign languages can receive additional points within the scope of the admission procedure. This advantage is obtained by the applicant who can prove the level of his/her knowledge by the certified documents in accordance with the requirements of these Guidelines.

6. ADMISSION PROCEDURE

To assess the knowledge, experience and motivation of the applicant, the assessment procedure specified in these Guidelines is implemented.

The admission procedure rests on the applicants' competitive selection.

To participate in the admission procedure, the applicants submit two packages of documents.

The first package forms the applicant's personal file and contains the documents specified in the Rules for Admission to the Federal State Autonomous Educational Institution of Higher Education PEOPLES' FRIENDSHIP UNIVERSITY OF RUSSIA for applicants to join educational programmes of higher education at the Master' s level in 2023 (hereinafter the Rules).

The documents for the applicant's personal file shall be submitted in Russian. If the document is composed in a foreign language, it shall be translated into Russian and certified by a notary.

The second package forms the portfolio.

The admission procedure to the Master' s degree programme, field of training "Linguistics", specialisation "Legal Translation and Interpreting", run at the RUDN Law Institute, is carried out through the portfolio assessment, in accordance with the procedure approved by the order of the RUDN University Rector.

To conduct the assessment, the examination board is appointed according to the University order.

The portfolio documents shall be submitted in English. Additional supporting documents may be submitted in other languages.

All the documentary evidence of the applicant's qualifications, academic results, employment experience, volunteering activities, that is fully or partially submitted by the applicant, aggregately forms the applicant's portfolio.

If the applicant submits a document that can be assessed across several portfolio items, the examination board is entitled to evaluate within one or more portfolio items at the board's discretion.

Each portfolio is evaluated by at least two members of the examination board. The points are awarded for each portfolio item and accumulated.

All the decisions of the examination board based on the evaluation results are made by a simple majority of the board members' votes. In case of equality of votes "for" and "against", the chairman of the examination board is entitled to make the final decision.

The announcement of the evaluation results takes place in accordance with the schedule for the announcement of the admission evaluation results.

The provision of the necessary resources for the evaluation procedure is carried out in accordance with the RUDN University Charter.
